ST. CROIX — Senator Positive Nelson's dream of becoming the next governor of the U.S. Virgin Islands had faded with the dusk of Monday. At the Botanical Gardens' Bodine Pavilion in St. George, Mr. Nelson emotionally revealed that his efforts to find a running mate had proven unfruitful. "I don't have somebody that I can tell you is my running mate," he bemoaned.

Mr. Nelson's running mate is Gary Udhwani, a St. Thomas businessman who owns a restaurant called Phali, according to the senator. Mr. Nelson kept crediting God for making the alliance with Mr. Udhwani possible. The lawmaker revealed that he was contacted early Tuesday following news that his bid had ended because of the lack of a number 2. "Sometimes when you get in that tight spot and you lean and God, God shows up. I serve a just-in-time God," he said.

Mr. Nelson said the team's mission now is to get his message to the people, which he said includes repairing the territory's infrastructure, revitalizing the economy with a focus on small business, preparing the territory for future storms, "and to be as self-reliant as possible."

As for his confidence in the ability of Mr. Udhwani to deliver as a lieutenant governor, the senator said, "I think I have found someone who understands business and he has passion to see growth in the Virgin Islands, and he had the courage to step forward."

I wear many hats, I suppose, but the one which fits me best would be journalism, second to that would be radio personality, thirdly singer/songwriter and down the line. I've been the Editor-In-Chief at my videogames website, Gamesthrift, for over 5 years, writing over 7,000 articles and more than 2 million words. I'm also very passionate about where I live, the United States Virgin Islands, and I'm intent on making it a better place by being resourceful and keeping our leaders honest. VI Consortium was birthed out of said desire, hopefully my efforts bear fruit. Reach me at ernice@viconsortium.com.

TO : Caroline Fawkes
Office of the Supervisor
Election District of St. Croix

FROM: Mr. Positive T. A. Nelson
9018 Salt River
St. Croix, VI 00820

DATE: May 22, 2018

Dear Mrs. Fawkes:

I write this correspondence in response to a notice of disqualification given to me on Monday, May 21, 2018, at approximately 4:00 p.m.

I first learned there might be an issue via the public airways when board member Adelbert Bryan mentioned, on multiple radio stations, that I will be disqualified due to my running mate not being a qualified elector. As mentioned during our meeting on the matter, I can understand your itemized concerns regarding my running mate Mr. Gary Udhwani. He did go to the election office after 11:00 a.m. on May 8, 2018, with the intention to reregister and pick up nomination petitions, which I instructed him to get. He was told by the person issuing the petitions that he did not need to register again and left with the petitions to get signatures. Prior to May 8, 2018, I, personally, with the help of two ladies, circulated the St. Thomas-St. John petition papers. Mr. Udhwani gathered approximately forty (40) signatures. When I was apprised by committee workers that I could not sign the affidavit of circulator as a resident of St. Croix, I then instructed Mr. Udhwani to sign, notarize, and send them over immediately, which he did.

We ask to be given an opportunity to correct any defects or deficiencies on our nomination petitions as allowed in Title 18 Chapter 17 subsection 411(C). Your consideration is appreciated and just. We anxiously await your response. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Positive T. A. Nelson
